10. PUBLIC COMMENT

Mr. David Flint, representing the University of Michigan stated he attends all state level board and commission meetings. The university is asking all boards and commissions to consider expanding the boards and commissions to include a K- 12 representative, university representative and health care representative. They would like to have a say, and understand it has to go thru legislature to change the Public Act. They would appreciate support within LARA. The university is looking into Executive Order 1996-2 and its effect on the boards and commissions and with the authority within LARA, the re-organization, change of forms and look thru Public Acts to see if applicable to each board and commission to familiarize themselves with the public acts to be sure the department is not stripping away their authority.
